

For Nonprofits, by Nonprofits.

CANDIDATE BIOGRAPHIES

Cheryl Hamilton

Cheryl Hamilton has served as the Human Resources Administrator of Educational Opportunities for Children and Families since November 2006. Cheryl has worked in Human Resources for many years at various capacities and also has experience with vocational training, job placement, college residential life programs, head-start programs, and has served on various boards.

EOCF is a nonprofit leader in providing comprehensive early childhood education and family services in Southwest Washington. Originally incorporated in 1967, it has grown and added services throughout the years to become the organization they are today. EOCF is one of the largest social service organizations in Southwest Washington, serving over 2,000 families and children, most of whom are low-income. EOCF currently serves the counties of Clark, Pacific, and the Woodland portion of Cowlitz County.

EOCF has been an NPIP member since November 2008 and supports NPIP's mission, vision, and services provided to members. Cheryl is looking forward to another term on the NPIP Board and appreciates the opportunity to represent the NPIP membership.

Jon Andrus

Jon Andrus has served as the Finance Director/Chief Financial Officer of Catholic Charities of Spokane (CCS) since December 2006. CCS was established in 1912 and is dedicated to providing food, shelter, clothing, education, counseling, and other support to those in need, regardless of creed, in the 13 counties of Eastern Washington. CCS operates 13 programs that provide childbirth and parenting assistance, early childhood education, emergency shelter, senior and family housing, nutritional education and food assistance, counseling, refugee and immigration legal services, and senior transportation and chore services.

Prior to joining CCS, Jon earned a Ph.D. in Business Administration with a concentration in Accounting from the University of Arizona and taught Accounting and Information Systems courses at the University of Arizona, California State University Fullerton, Chapman University, and Gonzaga University.

For Nonprofits, by Nonprofits.

In addition to serving on the board of NPIP since August 2015, Jon has recently served on the board and finance committee of the YMCA of the Inland Northwest, and the finance committee of Gonzaga Preparatory School in Spokane, Washington.

CCS has been a member of NPIP since 2010 and strongly supports the efforts of NPIP to provide affordable insurance solutions, training, and risk management services to nonprofit organizations. Jon is very appreciative of the opportunity to serve on the NPIP board and to contribute to the continuation and growth of services that benefit the nonprofits, which provide such valuable services to our communities.